Important People

Jesus engaged in a ministry of making ordinary people feel important. Not to manipulate them or to gain a following. Because, in heaven's view, they are. Not to appeal to any hidden vanity. To deal with humble persons with a regard that reflects their existing worth.

The Lord asked water of a Samaritan woman and conversed with her about the basic thirsts of life. He called the ignored rich man up in the tree by name and invited himself to stay at his house. He willingly touched a leper. He accepted the lavish unselfconscious gift of a woman criticized for her wastefulness. He took little ones in his arms and blessed them. He trusted his cause to twelve regular men.

It is no wonder he went about things this way. It is the way of God. He gives grace to the humble. He exalts them. Christ's own service among us resulted from, and was crowned by, the attention and value heaven attaches to people who are poor in spirit.

Isn't it then to be expected that the church of Christ will see making ordinary people feel important as one of it's most basic tasks? How else would we proceed when anything we know of our own worth comes from having been regarded in our lowly estate?

It is a mistake for us to think church work is too hard and to be left to experts. The first reason people come, open their hearts to the word, and stay, is often simply that someone made them feel important to the Lord.

That is a personal mission for each of us. Pay attention. Engage with a smile and a kind word. Know and understand. Care, whether that means congratulating or sympathizing. With warmth and genuineness. Because that's how our Lord is.

–Bill McFarland

Meal Train for the T. Morrison Family

So many of you have asked how you can help the Morrison's with meals, & we have it set up & ready to go! There is a link provided that all you have to do is click & sign up for a date. Travis was given a freezer from the Ash Grove 4-H so we are thinking that freezer meals would be the easiest. If you are wanting to do a fresh meal, that's fine too! You will just need to contact Travis personally to set up a time to meet or make sure someone is home. You can even just cook up some extra meat or chop up veggies & freeze those too for them! Lots of options to help them out. If you do a freezer type meal, the following instructions will make it smoother for them.

--Please label what the food is
--Put specific instructions on the bags on how to heat up or cook
--Make sure the temperature & length to cook the meal is also included.

THE LINK: <https://www.mealtrain.com/trains/qv7wgl>

We know many of you have been asking & we hope this helps you be able to provide that service for them. Of course, if you have any questions you may ask me or Glenda Thurlkill. Thank you church family for all you do & have done for the Morrisons.

Love, Leah Prewitt

I would like to take a group of ladies to the Hillcrest church of Christ Ladies day on March 3rd and 4th. We would leave the building at 5:30 pm on Friday night and return to Springfield; we would then leave again on Saturday at 8 am to attend the Saturday session. If you would like to attend one or both days please let me know. If I have enough we could possible take a van if its available. We would be back early afternoon on Saturday.
Melinda Barton

Thank you all for all the cards and prayers the past two weeks for the loss of my nephew and sister and for Kay & Bill at the funeral. They are greatly appreciated. With the love of Christ, Aubrey & Anita Cobb

I am so thankful for the blessings you gave to me. They were very much appreciated. Your cards, prayers and thoughts were special to me. In Christ, Barbara Barnes

Your expressions of love to our family through calls, cards and flowers touched our hearts and was so appreciated as we celebrated our Mother's life while on this earth. We love you, Fern Davis Family

Thank you so much for all the prayers, cards (there were so many), the calls and all the kindness you have all shown during the final days and loss of my mother. The flower was beautiful and thanks for all the ones who made donations to Fair Haven. Your kindness has been over whelming. All the Christian love shown has given us all great comfort. In Christian love, Thresa, Sam, Michael and Ann Fahr

I can't express how much all your prayers and concern have meant to me during the short life of Kayden. Thank you so much for being such a loving and supportive family. God Bless you all, Tim Timmons

On behalf of Erica Hawkins, we thank you for your prayers, cards and all acts of kindness. Randy & Orvella Blackburn
